ROBIN WRITES"FOCUSSED"

For those of us who are interested in sport it has been a very crowded and demanding summer! Not only the excitement of Euro 96, but Wimbledon and Tim Henman, England holding their own in the Test Matches and now the Olympic Games to absorb our time and energy!

It seems sports commentators have coined a new word, "focussed". When a sportsman begins to succeed and achieve, we are told that he or she is "focussed". I think it means to concentrate their mind and skill with a will to win. The British traditionally are not very good at this. We are often the world's best losers! As ever, the England football team won the "fair play" award, but lost the competition. Apart from the fans, we show the world how to lose with good grace!

That spirit is often prevalent in the life of the Church. The Church is often an optional extra. It takes an enormous amount of energy to become "focussed" on the things of God. It takes a serious illness, the loss of a loved one, a national tragedy or trouble of some kind to make us think of God, and the meaning and purpose of life. There is a view that it is not nice to be too enthusiastic about the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It is quite valid to spend time and money on homes, hobbies, sports and other human beings, but when a person becomes converted to Christianity and starts doing the things Jesus commanded, then words like "fanatic" and "extreme" are used.

Why is it so wrong to be "focussed" on Jesus Christ. Paul once said "Every athlete submits to strict discipline in order to be crowned with a wreath that will not last; but we do it for one that will last forever." If you call yourself a Christian may I challenge you to become more "focussed" on your faith. As we approach the GIFT DAY weekend at Pett Church, the Flower Festival at Guestling and the possibilities of new life and vitality in the future, please look at what Jesus Christ means to you. Could you not honestly give more of yourself to Him in the coming months, "To win a prize that will last forever"? His honour and mission need you. "Focus on Him"!

PETT PUZZLE 1996

Have YOU had a go at one or both of this year's Pett Puzzles?

They have been on sale during July and you may still obtain them during August and the first week of September, price £1 each from The Butchers Shop, Country Stores, the Post Office, Norris Upholsterers, Pett Level Market Stores and J Taylor (Paxstead, Pett Road).

Prizes for the first three correct solutions of either puzzle drawn from a hat during the Gift Weekend in September will win £10, £5 and £2 respectively.

If you haven't solved them, get your copies now of Pett Puzzle 'A' and 'B' and find out what happened in AD 96 when the Great Brunhilde took on the IVth Roman Legion on the crest of a hill outside Hastings. History books mention Queen Boudicca but say nothing about her second cousin twice removed - the Great Brunhilde. I wonder why??

ST MARY & ST PETER, PETT - HARVEST FESTIVAL and GIFT WEEKEND

This year we shall be holding the Pett Parish Harvest Festival and Gift Weekend on Saturday 21 and Sunday 22 September. We are inviting everyone to take part in this weekend of worship, giving and fun, and hope we can make it a similar success to last year's event.

On the Saturday and Sunday there will be an exhibition in St Mary and St Peter church showing the very talented work of some of the local folk together with items associated with the church's history and a selection of old postcards of Pett and its surrounds. The Harvest Festival service and Parish Communion will take place on the Sunday morning followed by tea or coffee and the sale of harvest produce. The weekend will finish with a SONGS OF PRAISE at 6.00 pm on the Sunday evening.

For the first three weeks of September there will be a box placed in Pett Church for anyone in the United Benefice to put a note of their favourite hymn inside together with their name and the reason for their choice. The selection of hymns sung at the Songs of Praise will be made from these requests. We will need your harvest gifts by early morning on Saturday so that they can be displayed to advantage with the flowers AND, of course, we will need your support to help raise the massive £25,000 required to make good the repairs to the church.

Please come and participate in the weekend. A letter will go out to the houses in Pett with the programme and any further details; and watch out for posters scattered throughout the Benefice. We look forward to seeing you at our Harvest Festival and Gift Weekend.

NATURE NOTES

It had been one of those mornings, full of irritations, frustrations and people being awkward, so that I came home from work feeling thoroughly out of sorts. I took my lunch into the garden where I was joined by Blackbird & Son, a couple of sparrows and Robin. A pair of dunnocks were foraging in and out of the hedge bottom, a starling was practising his trimphone impersonations on the roof and a painted lady butterfly was sunning itself on the wall. I could hear sheep baaing and a cuckoo calling, and the air was filled with the delicious perfume of the wild honeysuckle scrambling through the hedge. As my good humour rapidly returned, I thought for the thousandth time how lovely it is to live in the country, surrounded by the sights, sounds and smells of nature.

I counted 253 Spotted Orchids on the bank by the Garage. Perhaps even more pleasing were the seven on the verge in Rosemary Lane, since this verge has only been protected for a couple of years. A neighbour was delighted to find a green-winged orchid in her lawn, where the grass had been left uncut because of naturalised daffodils. If you can bring yourself to leave the first cut a bit later, you might be surprised by what will come in up your lawn!

My blackbird has finally flipped his lid. I saw him tapping on the greenhouse glass and went to investigate. One of his offspring was inside the greenhouse, begging for food, while Blackbird was outside with a beakfull of wriggles, trying to feed him through the glass. A friend has a blackbird who comes through the back porch and into the kitchen, where he pokes about under the table in the hope of finding crumbs. So far my friend's Tibetan Terrier has not noticed him - or perhaps she's "done a Nelson" and failed to see him through her fringe.

We are all used to seeing our gardens laid waste by rabbits, slugs, blackbirds, moles or badgers; but what about the person who found a calf looking in at her back door? Never a dull moment, is there Sue?

WEDDINGS IN GUESTLING AND PETT

6 July at St Laurence, Guestling - Shane Colin Barnard and Jane Whiteman

On 10 August Angus Mekie marries Natalie Mulberry at St Laurence and their reception is to be in the grounds of Snalesham Place in Chapel Lane.

On 7 September Paula Hull marries David Wadeson also at St Laurence. Paula's mum, Christine, is a regular of the Church at Guestling and we are delighted that Paula and David are marrying at St Laurence.

On the same day Barbara Goodsell marries Sean Adams at St Mary and St Peter, Pett. As weddings in the village are few and far between, this occasion will be a great joy to all, and eagerly anticipated. (As there is also a wedding at Fairlight on the same day it will be very busy with the Diocesan Fun Day at the school as well).

Our very best wishes to all who marry over the summer months. We wish them all very happy wedding days and all that they would wish for themselves in the future.

We are thrilled that 15 weddings have been booked into the Benefice Churches in the first year of the Group. A good sign for its future and confidence

BISHOP IAN'S FAREWELL

Bishop Ian's last duty in this Diocese will be to conduct a Youth Party to Taizé at the beginning of September. His official farewell to all his clergy is to be at Evensong on Sunday 8 September in Lewes. We wish him and his wife, Jo, well in their move to the See of Peterborough. He has been here for only 4 years, but his challenge in producing a Pastoral Strategy has been helpful and stimulating. We must be in prayer for the right man to take the oversight of this part of the Diocese in these critical days. If you would like to be identified with a farewell gift send your contribution to the Rectory marked BISHOP IAN'S FAREWELL GIFT.

HOLY CROSS - DIOCESAN CELEBRATION

A 'Fun Day' is being held at Guestling Bradshaw School. Ask your Leader about details.

The Rector wants ONE REPRESENTATIVE from both Guestling and Pett to attend the Diocesan Celebration on 14 September at 12 noon in the Cathedral. Do not leave it to others, let Robin know at once. (PS Peter Jennings is representing Fairlight and could take the other representatives.)

On Sunday 15 September there will be a remembrance in each church in the Benefice. Outlines and suggestions for services are to come from the Diocese.

Sadly only one cross and prayer card has been ordered. Perhaps it is not too late. Put your name on the list for late requests.

PERSONAL LETTER FROM EILEEN AND ROBIN BALCH

Dear Friends

We are very grateful for the warm greetings and expressions of interest in the marriage of our two daughters in Sheffield this summer. It has been a great joy to us. Sadly we had to miss the Pett Flower Show as Jenny was married on 27 July. With the pressure of Fairlight's special Outreach Year, it has meant that we have not been available often for Pett and Guestling. Eileen has also spent time with her mother in Burgess Hill and taken a part-time job to help meet the financial demands of the year.

Thank you for your understanding. We are not able to have a proper holiday this year until after the Fairlight Mission in October, but we trust after that we will be refreshed and more available.

God bless you all.

Robin and Eileen

PS Our Rest Day is usually TUESDAY!

CHICHESTER DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION FOR FAMILY SOCIAL WORK

Hastings & Rye Committee invite anyone to an open meeting on Monday 2 September at 7.00 for 7.30 pm in St Matthew's Church Centre, London Road, St Leonards on Sea. The speaker will be the Director, Neil Morgan. Please come and bring a friend.

THINKING 'BENEFICE'

This first year has been demanding, working out the 'style' of the Benefice of Fairlight, Guestling and Pett. Certain things have emerged so far.

Robin is the Rector, over the whole Benefice, he does not have special responsibility in any part over or against any other. Derek is his part-time assistant throughout the Benefice.

Fairlight makes the greatest demand on both ministers. This year it has been so especially because of the Anniversary year, activities and events. Derek lives in Fairlight and naturally responds to the needs there initially, but has a special interest and concern for Guestling. Robin firstly must respond to church members but with Eileen has always endeavoured to respond to community needs.

Michael Townroe has been very valuable in Pett and Guestling as has Humphrey Newman, always ready to help where needed. Ken Holmes has played a major role in Fairlight and Eileen has worked among the families, women and also worked as a Reader throughout the Benefice.

Without paid assistance, the administration takes a great deal of the Rector's time, with three distinct parishes. Occasional help is appreciated, but much time has to be spent in the study!

The School has been demanding on Robin's time, and he has taken a special interest in the Royal British Legion. With the insistent pressure of funerals, baptisms and weddings, as well as crucial pastoral matters, limited time is left for much else.

The Ministerial Team meets from time to time. Sundays have been covered well, although each church wishes they could see more of the Rector. The quality and variety of the ministry means this Benefice is very fortunate.

The Churchwardens and Treasurers meet to discuss finance and administration. There is an increasing desire to do more together and share resources. A UNITED MEETING of the THREE PCCs is planned for later in the year. The Diocese is pleased with the Rector's FOUR YEAR PLAN and the Revd John Ford (Mission and Renewal) is very supportive.
