

Sunday 14 June Day 77 of the garden journal

14/06/2020

Rabbits. This is why my Verbena bonariensis are not flourishing. The rabbits are eating them at a more advanced stage than they used to...

Vivien Ford

14/06/2020

...along with a Magnolia stellata (new to their menu),...

Vivien Ford

14/06/2020

...strawberries,...

Vivien Ford

14/06/2020

...Alchemilla mollis. ...

Vivien Ford

14/06/2020

... But one of the clematis they demolished last year, this year they overlooked and I'm now enjoying these beautiful seed heads.

Vivien Ford

14/06/2020

We're all too familiar with Vivien's dilemma. This clematis was rabbited almost to death. We protected it and this year had three blooms at the top of two very long, rather unsightly, stalks. But at least it's alive!

Sandy Andrews